Another Blast of Cold Hits Middle U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Another blast of sub-zero cold in the nation's midsection today indicated no immediate relief from a prolonged spell of frigid weather.

Unseasonable temperatures, except in some Southern sections, chilled most other parts of the nation.

The below-zero belt widened. Arctic air spread from the Midwest into the Northeast and temperatures dropped to sub-zero marks in parts of Ohio, northern New England and sections of New York State.

Low readings in the Northeast included -12 in Caribou, Maine; -10 in Lebanon, N.H., and Watertown, N.Y., and -9 in Massena, N.Y., and Old Town, Maine.

The most intense cold again was in the Midwest. In Wisconsin the mercury plunged to 35 below zero in Lone Rock, near Madison. That compared with Tuesday's low of -44 and the nation's coldest reading, -50, in Black River Falls, Wis. Record readings for the date were reported in many cities.

Skies were generally clear in the extreme cold belt although snow flurries fell in sections of the Great Lakes.

Temperatures were at or near zero in most of New York State although New York City reported 22 above.

Warmer weather was on the way for much of southern Texas westward across the southern plateau region and into Southern California. The cold earlier had caused millions of dollars damage to citrus and vegetable crops in Texas and Southern California.

The cold and snow in the last week caused 60 deaths from exposure, asphyxiation, fires and traffic accidents.

Early morning readings were in the teens in Tennessee and northern fringes of Alabama and Georgia and mountain areas of North Carolina. Freezing marks extended to the extreme northwest tip of Florida. The 60s were reported in extreme southern Florida.

Work Started on New Lumber Mill in Hope

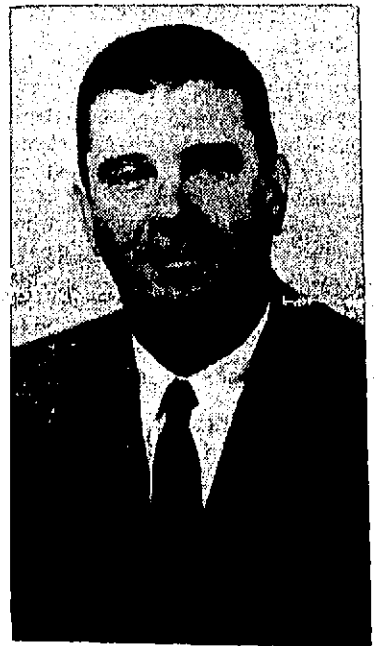

Rebuilding started this week on the Hope Lumber Manufacturing Company's sawmill which was destroyed by fire in April last year. The construction cost will run in excess of $250,000. The 40 by 100 steel and concrete building will be as nearly fireproof as possible. Company officials hope to have the mill in operation by April. The mill's capacity will be 50,000 feet per day and it will be capable of cutting 24 foot length. At the time it burned 67 persons were employed.

Insurance Merger Is Announced

The merger of the Leonard Ellis Insurance & Realty Company with the Greening Insurance & Realty Company with principal offices at 209 Main street, was announced today.

The new firm, Greening-Ellis Company, is a three-way partnership headed by Fred O. Ellis, vice-president, and W. E. (Gene) White, secretary-treasurer. Their formal announcement appears in a page advertisement in today's issue.

Commenting on the consolidation of the two firms and the forming of the three-way partnership, Fred O. Ellis had this statement:

"I am most happy to be associated with Leonard Ellis and Gene White. Each is qualified and proven.

"Alert business men look to the future. Each of us had this in mind in planning the partnership and the consolidation of the two firms.

"Formation of the partnership gives the new firm more than 30 top-rated stock and mutual companies, providing facilities for all types of insurance protection. All insurance will remain in the same companies as new written."

Leonard Ellis, who has operated his agency at 108 East Second Street for the past 16 years, had this comment:

"I am delighted to be associated with Fred and Gene. This is a good business deal for all concerned. In the past 16 years, I have participated in a lot of deals, but this one has been by far the largest and the most satisfying.

"The major contributing factor in leading to the consolidation was to eliminate certain hazards of one-man agencies—the sale ownership, the sole proprietorship and to put the new firm into what agency men owners call perpetual status.

Gene White, the other partner, had this comment:

"In the complex field of insurance, the smart insurance buyer looks to a large agency, strong companies, good service and with facilities to write all types of insurance.

"It is gratifying and pleasant to own part of Hope's leading insurance agency, and to be associated with Fred and Leonard Ellis. The future looks bright for all of us."

All personnel of the two firms will be retained. The staff includes Miss Marcine Abbott, Mrs. Lloyd Turner, Mrs. John T. Branham and Mrs. Olin Lewis.

All three partners have long been active in civic and community affairs. Fred O. Ellis having served on the Chamber of Commerce board and also served as its president.

Leonard Ellis has served on the Chamber of Commerce board, and at present is vice-president of the Hempstead County Industrial Foundation.

Gene White is a past president of the Hope Junior Chamber of Commerce; serves as treasurer of the United Fund, and at present is a member of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

Jury Delves Deeper in Ole Miss Case

By BEN THOMAS

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—A man described as a "professional agitator" and three others are under indictment as a federal grand jury delves deeper today into the University of Mississippi desegregation riot.

The jury—in its seventh day—has heard some testimony concerning six others, including former Army Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, who were arrested following the Sept. 30 riot which killed two and injured scores.

The four indicted Tuesday are Melvin Bruce, 35, of Decatur, Ga., a crippled truck contractor the jury called a professional agitator; Phillip Lloyd Miles and Kline Lamar May, both of Prichard, Ala.; and Richard Hays Hinton of Lucedale, Miss. All four are free on bond ranging from $25,000 to $50,000.

They were charged with interfering with a federal marshal performing duties and willfully attempting to obstruct or impede by threat or force the execution of court orders which directed admission of a Negro, James H. Meredith, to the university.

If convicted of the interference charge, the four could be sentenced to three years in jail and fined $5,000. The maximum penalty for the other offense is one year and a $1,000 fine.

They are scheduled to go on trial in May.

Two no true bills—failure to find sufficient grounds for indictment—were returned by the jury. The bills were not made public, however. Another grand jury could investigate the same cases later.

Court sources indicated the jury would continue dealing with the rioting for several days.

Child Perishes at Van Buren

VAN BUREN, Ark. (AP)—Patricia Ann Mason, 2, burned to death and her brother, Billy Ray Jr., 4, was seriously burned in a fire that destroyed their home here Tuesday night.

Billy Ray Mason, father of the children, said he left them watching television in the house and went across the street to a garage. When he saw the house on fire he ran back inside and found his son, he said, but could not find the girl.

The boy was hospitalized at Fort Smith with burns over 60 percent of his body.

Patricia was not found until an hour after the fire was put out. Two miles from the Van Buren Fire Department fought the fire. When they arrived only one room of the four-room frame house was still standing. Firemen said they did not know how the fire started.

The mother was away at work at the time, Mason said.

Interrupted by Applause 6 Times

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus was interrupted by applause six times today during his 55-minute inaugural address.

The applause came when the governor said the Children's Colony had been judged the finest in North America.

That Arkansas had led the nation in percentage per capita income gain.

That the Arkansas Razorbacks were one of the nation's finest football teams.

That he would require out-of-state insurance companies to invest in Arkansas.

When he thanked legislators for pursuing sound fiscal policies.

And when he declared that radical labor legislation had as much chance of passing this General Assembly as "Winthrop Rockefeller getting Willis Ricketts elected governor in the last general election."

Castro Tells of Split in Red Ranks

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro denounced today the split in the ranks of world communism and issued a fiery call to the Latin American masses to rise in revolution.

Crouching over his microphones with his eyes flashing, Castro declared it is the duty of revolutionary leaders to rally the masses for combat.

"It is the masses who make history and to make history it is necessary to bring the masses to battle," he shouted in a televised speech monitored here.

"We don't deny the possibility of a peaceful transition although we are still awaiting the first case," he said.

Addressing a congress of American women meeting in Havana, Castro told the delegates their duty is to fight.

The congress, which drew delegates from many American nations — reportedly including the United States and Canada — has been conferring for five days on women's rights and revolutionary duties. Observers were on hand from Europe and Asia. Castro's talk climaxed the meeting.

Castro said Cuba had no intention of "throwing wood on the fire" of the Communist split but feels a duty to fight for unity with the methods of Marxism-Leninism.

"The liberating movement is fighting in Angola, in Viet Nam, in Latin America and this fight needs all the united force of the Socialist camp," he said.

Castro did not mention Red China or the Soviet Union by name but left no doubt that he had reference to the deep ideological differences which have arisen between the two major Communist powers.

Legislature to Take Routine Measures

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Legislature was ready to settle down to routine business today with organizational procedures and Gov. Orval E. Faubus' fifth term inaugural speech behind it.

Faubus presented a modest legislative program, highlighted by proposals on city-county financing and truck weight limits, to a joint session Tuesday.

The governor dedicated half his speech to a glowing review of his administration and most legislators approved his praise of programs in which many of them had a part.

Lawmakers generally agreed that Faubus' proposals were reasonable and probably would be enacted.

The governor called for a constitutional amendment to increase the maximum property tax that cities and counties can levy for general purposes to 10 mills on each $1 of assessed valuation.

The amendment would be a successor to city-county financing amendments proposed by the 1959 and 1961 legislatures and defeated at the polls.

Faubus said the increase would amount to only two mills for counties which now are levying a three-mill road tax in addition to five mills for general purposes.

On truck weights, Faubus said he would approve increasing the limit by 8,000 pounds, to 72,000, if license fees for the trucks affected are increased and heavy trucks are barred from secondary roads.

The governor also called for an increase in the premium tax on insurance companies which refuse to invest in Arkansas 50 per cent of the reserve in policies issued to residents of the state.

Many of his proposals were housekeeping in nature. He suggested reorganization of all commissions now handling land and water resources into a Water and Soil Commission and creation of a separate state Planning Commission. The planning division now is under the Geology Commission.

He also asked for authority to locate a Revenue Building, authorized in a 1961 act, off the capitol grounds.

The only bills passed Tuesday were those appropriating funds to pay expenses of the 60-day legislative session.

Objections were raised in both Houses because the bills contain patronage funds.

Sen. Robert Harvey was a lone objector in the Senate which approved a $168,650 bill 33-1. The vote on the $369,600 House bill was 83-9.

Rep. J. H. Cottrell Jr., of Pulaski County said the House bill included $72,000 for employees who would not work. "This amounts to $720 in additional pay for each member," he said.

No patronage figure was mentioned in the Senate, but $700 was mentioned two years ago.

The Senate budget was about $10,900 higher and the House $30,000 higher than two years ago. The patronage figure was not increased, however.

Under the patronage system, each legislator is authorized to designate one person as his personal employee. This employee does no general legislative work.

The House was told that $12,000 of the House increase will go for new chairs and most of the rest.

GOPs Say Faubus Lifted Planks

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Republican party said Tuesday Gov. Orval E. Faubus lifted planks from previous GOP platforms and used them as his own during his inaugural address.

One of the planks, the party said, was Faubus' recommendation that a task force be needed to study the state's judiciary structure.

"Such a study was recommended by the GOP candidate for governor last year during the campaign," the party said from its Little Rock headquarters.

The incumbent governor stated at the time that the court system was just fine and he didn't understand what was wrong with the system."

Dave Bledsoe, party field representative, said "we can only express gratification that the governor sees the necessity for implementing the voting machine amendment."

Negro Wins Admission to Clemson

BULLETIN

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—A Negro student won a court fight today for admission to all-white Clemson Agricultural College of South Carolina.

The U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals reversed a lower court decision in the case of Harvey B. Gantt, 19, of Charleston, S.C.

The opinion, only a week after arguments were heard, upsets the decision by Judge C.C. Wyche of the U.S. District Court for Western South Carolina.

Wyche ruled last month that Gantt had not proved by the evidence that he was denied admission solely because of his race.

Attorneys for Gantt, who made his bid to enter Clemson as a transfer student from Iowa State University at Ames, had argued it "is no accident" that "South Carolina is now the only Southern state which has not, either by court order or voluntarily, admitted Negro students to its institutions of higher learning attended by white persons."

Brother of Hope Man Dies Tues. Near Bodcaw

Paris Edward Butler, aged 77, of Bodcaw died Tuesday at his home. He was a retired farmer and a member of the Union Baptist Church.

He is survived by three sons, Brad, Alvin Butler of Rosston, Oscar of Hooks, Texas; two daughters, Miss Jessie Butler of Texarkana and Mrs. Theo Neighbors of Bellflower, Calif.; four brothers, Robert of Camden, J. M. and Clark Butler of Rosston and Hody Butler of Hope; two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Dillard of Prescott and Mrs. Dessa Waters of Rosston.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday at Union Church at Bodcaw by the Rev. W. E. Thomason and the Rev. Doyle Marlow. Burial by Smith Service will be in Union Cemetery.

Red Policy Not Based on War, Nikita Says

By TOM OCHILTREE

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev told his Communist comrades today the United States has 40,000 atomic or nuclear warheads and Communist policy can't be based on war.

If all the American bombs were dropped, he said, 700 million to 800 million people would be killed and whole nations wiped out.

Departing from his text, Khrushchev spoke of the Soviet Union's giant nuclear bomb, implying it could be used only against the United States.

"Dear comrades, now I tell you a secret," he said. "Our scientists have developed a new 100-megaton bomb. This bomb could not be used in Western Europe because it would hit France and Germany and you too. This bomb could only be used overseas against a potential aggressor."

In a wide-ranging speech to the sixth Communist party congress of East Germany, Khrushchev thus answered the Chinese Communists who have accused him of being afraid of a "paper tiger"—the United States—when he backed down on Cuba.

Pouring scorn on Peking's war-and-peace theories, Khrushchev warned the East German Communist party's sixth congress that communism cannot win in a nuclear war. Such a conflict, he said, would bring unimaginable destruction and death in the world.

Speaking clearly in the context of his argument with Peking over war and peace as it applies to Communist expansion, Khrushchev pleaded that the fight for peace was the "prime task for socialism."

He departed from his text and waved his arms as he declared: "Russian Communists never started a war to carry communism to victory. Some who call themselves Marxists and Leninists want to win Socialist victory by war."

Dropping his voice to make his point clear, he warned:

"The United States has 40,000 atomic or nuclear warheads. What would happen if one let all those bombs come down on humanity? Seven hundred to eight hundred million people would perish. Countries would be rubbed out."

"Would socialism win by a thermonuclear war? No. You can't build socialism in an atom-infested territory."

"A 100-megaton bomb — on France or West Germany — would hit you. This I only say to show you the effects. We tried out this bomb and that is what our scientists have calculated."

In his major policy speech in East Berlin, the Soviet premier also:

Called for establishment of West Berlin as a free city guaranteed by the United Nations with foreign troops remaining "for a certain time" under the U.N. flag.

Claimed he was victorious in the Cuban crisis, prevented the United States from attacking the island and thereby kept communism alive there.

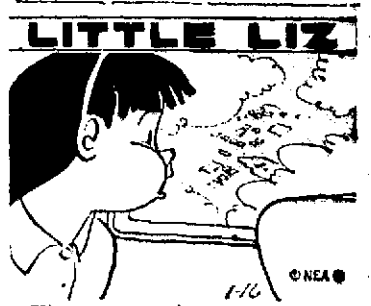

Called for conclusion of a German peace treaty which "will not bring gains to one side and losses to the other." But he set no deadline, saying the Berlin wall had made a treaty a less pressing problem.

Assured the East German Communists Germany will be reunified as a Communist state and anti-Communist forces in West Germany "will be swept away."

Chickens Burned

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Some 20,000 chickens almost at market-stage growth were killed in a fire that flashed through the Brookhatchery here Tuesday. Fire Chief R. R. Ivy said the fire started from a broken gas pipe. The chickens, seven-week-old bird died within 10 minutes, he said.

The recent thing about air travel is that no one has devised a way to put billboards up there.

New State Agency Is Suggested

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The legislative secretary of the Christian Civic Foundation called Monday for creation of a special state agency to see to the enforcement of state gambling and liquor laws.

Rev. Lee Dance told the annual Board of Directors meeting in Little Rock that liquor interests are expected to attempt to amend the state's local option liquor laws.

Though Gov. Orval E. Faubus' declaration that he would veto any bill to legalize gambling apparently made legalized gambling a dead issue, Dance told the directors that "the gambling and liquor traffic are tied together."

The local option liquor law says wet forces would have to ask for an election to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages in an entire county.

Wet forces will attempt to amend the law so that a wet-dry election could be called in any political subdivision of a county which has voted dry.

Dance attacked this as a potential creator of "cesspools," and said the law is not unfair to wet forces and should be more strongly written. He said wet forces will argue, however, that the law is unfair.

No specific type of agency was recommended, but the board appointed a committee to draft a resolution urging Faubus to vigorously enforce anti-gambling laws.

The governor, who also was commended by the directors for his recent stand on gambling, has maintained that open casino gambling in Hot Springs is a local problem and should be handled by local officials.

The foundation also decided Monday to sponsor these bills:

A bill to provide that drivers give their "implied consent" when they get a driver's license to take a test to determine the alcohol content of their blood. The license would be revoked if the driver refused to take a test after being arrested for drunken driving.

A bill to outlaw the sale of intoxicants by grocers, drug stores and similar places of business.

UN Hopeful by Tshombe's Action

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant today welcomed President Moise Tshombe's statement that Tshombe would end Katanga's secession. Thant expressed hope that it would mean the end of the conflict in the turbulent province.

In a statement issued at U.N. headquarters, Thant said: "I welcome the message, which indicates a readiness to end secession, to give freedom of movement to United Nations personnel throughout Katanga and to undertake the full implementation of the plan of national reconciliation."

"I most earnestly hope that this statement will be promptly and fully implemented and thus bring to an end the conflict and destruction which have been needlessly experienced in Katanga."

"The United Nations will certainly give its full assistance and support to the implementation of the promise implicit in Mr. Tshombe's statement."

Land for Park

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill co-sponsored by Sens. J. William Fulbright and John L. McClellan, Arkansas Democrats, and introduced Monday would authorize transfer of a 19-acre federal tract to Fayetteville, Ark. The land, near a veterans hospital, would be used for a park.

Within 20 miles of Camden, there are 20 lakes excellent for water sports, in addition to the Ouachita River and numerous creeks and bays.

DR. PRUITT'S BODY

THE STORY: Matt Bacon discovers the body of Dr. Pruitt, a missing scientist. Pruitt was supposed to have left the laboratory grounds the day he disappeared but apparently did not.

IX

"The police will handle the case now," said Matt. "I think I've done all I can do. Nobody but an idiot would think Commies killed Pruitt."

"Are you suggesting Chairman of the Board Rodney McCann is an idiot?" Bradley demanded. "Mr. Bradley, if a spy was trying to get information out of Pruitt, or wanted to stop him from perfecting something very hush-hush, he'd wait for a breakthrough, wouldn't he?"

"I don't know anything about spies," said Bradley, "but your contract calls for proof that there are no red activities here. Finding the body doesn't prove it."

Matt studied a moment. It proved that Pruitt was murdered and that the crime was committed by someone who knew his way around—at least someone who knew the abandoned steam line wasn't going to reveal its ghastly secret for a few days. But Matt didn't like dissatisfied clients.

"Okay, I'll dig a little deeper," he said. "Go do it," said Bradley. "We're not paying you to let the police do your work." "They won't solve it for a few minutes," Matt said. Suzy entered, calm and composed. "Lieutenant Moynihan wants to talk to Mr. Bacon." Her eyes shifted to Matt. "Send him in," said Bradley. He turned to Matt. "He'd better talk to you here." Bradley didn't want to miss anything.

Moynihan, Clague and a police sergeant named Billings came into the office. Moynihan was over 40. Sometimes he wore a uniform, although he was not in the one now. He had black hair, gray at the temples, which had a cowlick on top. Billings was beefy and he carried a little case.

Bradley saw the case. "Magnetic tape recorder, eh? Our model Q49, the best we ever made. Barring our stereophonic Q49a-27 of course."

"We get pretty good service out of it, Mr. Bradley," said the officer. Corbin Bradley beamed with delight. He had only to check the sales records to know that Magnetic's electrical equipment was good, and gave excellent service. But he would rather have verbal assurance from a satisfied customer than all the statistics he could gather. He knew only too well that praise was a scarce commodity.

The lieutenant appropriated Bradley's chair. The general manager uncomfortably took a seat nearby. Matt and Clague stood and Billings set up the recorder.

"What do we know so far?" Matt asked.

Moynihan scowled. Private dicks weren't his favorite people, but there was nothing wrong with the question. Moynihan just hated to give out information.

"The medical examiner said Pruitt had a broken neck. An autopsy will show more of course. Couldn't fix the exact time of death, considering the weather and other factors. But it's likely that Pruitt had been dead the full five days. The problem is how he got back on the plant grounds."

"Find anything on the body?" asked Bradley anxiously.

Moynihan shook his head. "Nothing but personal stuff."

"Were his keys in his pocket?" Matt asked.

"He had a pencil, a handkerchief and $6.98 in cash," said Moynihan. "He was wearing white, composition coveralls over his clothes."

"That's the protective garment for the hot lab," said Bradley. "He wasn't wearing the coveralls when I saw him last," said Clague.

Moynihan turned. "When was that?"

"About three, or a little after, Thursday afternoon."

"You were in the lab?"

Clague nodded. "In the building, yes," said Clague. "It's in my report to you fellows. I didn't talk to him. I was talking to Dr. Baylor."

"Dr. Marybeth Baylor, one of Pruitt's associates," Bradley explained. "You had business with Dr. Baylor?" Moynihan asked.

"Yes, she reported it to the fellows investigating the disappearance. Clague said as I was leaving her office, Pruitt came out of his, across the hall. He wasn't wearing the coveralls then. I saw him go down the hall toward the hot lab, then he turned around, and went back into his office, as if he'd changed his mind or something."

"You talk to him? Say hello? Or anything?"

"No. Doc was preoccupied—like always. He didn't even seem to notice Miss Baylor or me."

"Okay. We'll check on it later," said Moynihan. He turned to Matt. "I want a full report on how you happened to find the body."

Billings had started the tape recorder and it all went down just as Matt said it.

Paper Mill Fire Is Out Finally

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—The International Paper Co. fire which began Saturday, killed two workers and caused more than $1 million damage was extinguished today.

Two of the company's three huge paper-making machines went back into operation, and plant officials said the third machine would be put back to work Thursday, or shortly thereafter.

The last smoldering roles of newspaper were removed from the damaged warehouse today by cranes and fork lifts. They were dumped far beyond the plant to burn out.

Plant officials said the cleanup operation in the burned warehouse was underway. The cause of the fire still has not been determined.

Leadership May Prolong Viet Nam War

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Hesitant leadership by South Vietnamese field officers and lack of aggressiveness by South Vietnamese GIs may prolong the war to crush Communist guerrillas threatening that country's independence.

This assessment emerges from talks with U.S. military officials involved in the massive American effort to help the pro-Western government in Saigon.

In the past year, the United States has fed money, military advisers and modern equipment into South Viet Nam and has made significant progress in improving the firepower, mobility, communications and planning of its armed forces.

U.S. experts have been trying to shape strong South Vietnamese military leadership from the top command to the squad level.

Results so far have been disappointing, particularly at the field echelon.

There is a feeling among some U.S. military authorities, who declined to be identified, that poor leadership could be the Achilles heel of the South Vietnamese effort to wipe out the persistent and resourceful Communist Viet Cong.

The top U.S. commander in South Viet Nam, Gen. Paul D. Harkins, took note of criticism voiced by unidentified American military advisers and issued a statement in Saigon.

"I believe that anyone who criticizes the fighting qualities of the armed forces of the republic of Viet Nam is doing a disservice to the thousands of gallant and courageous men who are fighting in the defense of their country," maining $18,000 will be paid in salaries to secretaries of standing committees under a new committee system.

Both Houses were expected to act today on three resolutions calling on Congress to propose state rights amendments to the federal constitution.

The House Memorials and Resolutions Committee endorsed two of the resolutions Tuesday but balked on the third which would create a Court of the Union with authority to overrule decisions of the U.S. Supreme Court.

The committee decided to send this one back to the House without recommendation. It approved proposed amendments to relieve the Supreme Court of power to rule in case involving apportionment of state legislatures and to authorize legislatures of two-thirds of the states to require Congress to propose amendments, instead of merely asking that amendments be proposed.

The three amendments were written by the Council of State Governments which asked that all legislation in session on Jan. 16 (today) vote on them on that date.

Harkins said.

U.S. advisers can only go so far—they are barred from issuing any commands in battle. There is little likelihood that this will change.

South Viet Nam's President Ngo Dinh Diem insists on holding a tight rein on his military forces. Even if he should consent to allowing U.S. officers command authority, there is the strong possibility the Communists would seize on this to picture South Viet Nam as a complete puppet of the United States.

Some of the difficulties of inculcating leadership in the South Vietnamese stem from the past when the French dominated the country and natives never were allowed to rise above junior officer grade.

The best—and best educated—South Vietnamese officers are in the many headquarters which are overstrength, by U.S. standards. The battalions and rifle companies—where the fighting is done—are staffed with the less educated officers, mostly of peasant stock. These combat units are understrength in officers.

The result, as U.S. officials see it, is indecisiveness and timidity by small unit commanders in battle.

Because of these shortcomings, top commanders have been drafting detailed operational plans and insisting on rigid adherence. This denies the small unit leader any real initiative—even if he cares to exercise it.

Wants Point Plan for Bad Drivers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A new bill to establish a point system under which reckless drivers could lose their licenses was filed in the Arkansas House today by Rep. Glenn Walther of Little Rock.

The bill is a duplicate of one Walther got passed in the 1961 legislature, but which was vetoed by Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

This time Walther has provided in a separate bill for raising funds to finance the agency by assessing additional penalties for conviction on traffic offenses.

A third bill would set up a new State Police agency to administer the system.

Walther's point system would provide for a suspension of the license of any driver who accumulates 20 points during any 3-year period.

The maximum number of points assessed for any offense is 10 for reckless driving and hit-and-run. Any moving violation will be three points.

The maximum additional fine would be $10 for drunken driving, leaving the scene of an accident, manslaughter and negligent homicide. The bill would add $2 to each speeding fine and $1 to the fine for any other traffic conviction.

Walther also filed a bill setting up a system under which Arkansas taxpayers could take credit on their state income tax for money paid in federal income taxes.

Deductions would come from gross income. The bill would permit deduction of 25 per cent of the federal income tax paid on 1963 income, 50 per cent on 1964 income, 75 per cent on 1965 income and 100 per cent on 1966 income.

Pulaski County Rep. Ben Allen filed a bill to require motorists to remain in the right lane of multiple highways except when passing.

Killed at Searcy
SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—Willis L. McFadden, 84, of Searcy was killed Monday when his truck collided with a tractor-trailer rig driven by Floyd S. Steenrod, 27, of Lake Orion, Mich. Police said the accident occurred at the intersection of state Highway 36 and U.S. Highway 67 near here. Steenrod was not injured.

Melrose HD Club Meets
Tuesday afternoon, January 15 the Melrose Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Ray Turner. For the Eye Opener, Mrs. Monroe Willis told "How to Make Cookies from Cake Mix." All joined in singing "God Bless America." The hostess read

Matt. 7:1-12 for the devotion. Mrs. Lyle Allen gave "A Lesson From Your Personality Calendar."

Each member answered the roll call by telling "Two Things I Can Do to Help the Club This Year." Mrs. Bettie Duncan, Home Demonstration Agent, showed an interesting and informative film on "Calories."

Three new members welcomed to the club were Mrs. W. F. Williams, Mrs. Sydney Churchwell, and Mrs. Garrett Willis. Coffee and hot chocolate were served with cake and cookies. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Mart Yocom.

DeAnn Club Meets

Mrs. Claud O'Steen and Mrs. Wayward Burke were co-hostesses to a meeting of the DeAnn Lilac Garden Club Tuesday, January 15 in the O'Steen home. The club president, Mrs. Hollis Samuel, called the meeting to order.

The secretary, Mrs. John Burke, read the minutes and called the roll. Each member answered by telling "The Project Planned for the Year." After Mrs. O'Steen had given the devotion, all joined in repeating The Lord's Prayer.

For the program, Mrs. Ronnie Burke presented "Table Top Gardeners and Hints on Potted Plants." Mrs. J. J. Samuels gave "Helpful Hints on Next Month's Arrangement."

Mrs. John Burke won the door prize. In the judging of crescent arrangements brought by the members, Mrs. Carlton Samuel won the prize. Sandwiches and cookies were served with coffee or cold drinks to 12 members and one guest, little Jan Burke.

DOROTHY DIX

Should She Deny Her Past?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I once worked as a strip teaser in a plush Chicago night club. It was a living and I needed the money. There was a certain amount of glamor about it too; champagne corks popping, soft lights, rich draperies and patrons in an expansive mood.

I was very young (still am), had a good figure (still do), was an honest-to-goodness blonde with come-hither baby blue eyes. I'm not handing myself roses, just stating facts.

I'd wait out wearing a rhinestone studded white ostrich plumed head-dress with little else on but a G-string and long white ostrich feather cape. After the third drum roll I'd let the cape fall to the floor.

"This outfit got me a honey of a husband. We're very much in love and have two gorgeous kids. But here's the rub: when we married I made my husband promise never to mention that I'd been a strip-teaser. And, since we lived away from Chicago, I had no worry about my past catching up with me.

But the other night, to my everlasting shame, my husband openly boasted before friends who were attending a party at our house, that I'd been the main attraction in the Chicago night club which, as everybody knows, features strip tease. The women eyed me suspiciously and the men

Hollamon were visitors in Little Rock on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawthorne and Mrs. Marie Hendrix went to the inauguration of state officials in Little Rock Tuesday.

joked with my husband — said he sure was to be congratulated in toping such a queen. I could have dug a hole and drawn it in after me. If my children find out that their Mommy was a strip-teaser they're sure to think bad things. What can I do to solve my problem? — Worried Woman

Dear Worried: Do exactly what Gypsy Rose Lee did. Be yourself. If the women look cross-eyed, it's because they are jealous.

Obviously the thought that you once performed in a Chicago night club doesn't worry your husband. In fact, from what you say, he is a little proud of the fact. Go along with him. Play up, not down your days as a night club entertainer. It will make you all the more interesting. You're somebody — not a nobody. Make the most of it!

Dear Helen: You say day dreaming indicates a healthy imagination and the dreamer a potential writer. I, too, am a great dreamer — liar, some would term it, but I often thought I would like to write for I enjoy people and find so many things in life interesting.

At present I've been asked to write personal letters for a dear friend who is ill. She has a college education but says I have the gift of holding the reader's attention — something which she feels she lacks. Perhaps in time I could put some of my ideas and dreams into print. Is it so very hard? — E.

Dear E.: Nothing worthwhile comes easily. No one, however gifted, just sits down and tosses off a book. In writing, as with everything else in life, you learn by doing. Taking a correspondence course or attending extension lectures on the art of writing might help, if only to make you toe the line and learn the technique.

I've spent most of my life earning my living as a writer and I'm still learning much of it from books. Right now I am rereading Somerset Maugham's "Summing Up," as fine a lesson as any on the art of writing.

Dear Helen: I have a supposed friend who is okay when she visits me alone but, when she brings her children along, chaos reigns. They race, meddle, mess and ruin my home. It seems impossible to discourage them or her from bringing them without a blunt, "You are not welcome any more."

In our small town this just wouldn't do, even if I could bring myself to say it, which I can't. Our children aren't perfect but they do behave in other people's homes. My friend's brats don't even respect their own mother. We've stopped going to her house but still she and they come to ours. What do you suggest? — Wits' End

Dear Wits' End: Take those wild Indians into camp. Civilize them by example and love. Suppose they are mischievous. What healthy child is not? Start by winning their good will. Treat them as welcome guests. Pass the cookie jar. Keep some special games on hand for them to play with your children. Get their good will. Children and animals are intuitive. These little hellions may sense your antipathy and repay in kind.

If their mother won't train them it is within your province to do so when they come to your home. It's worth trying. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Manners and Young People."

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine care of this newspaper. Be sure to enclose a

Tulsa Defeats Wichita in 2 Overtimes

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

It was a few hours later than high noon, but down in the valley known as the Basketball Badlands, two quick-draw guys matched shot for shot. When it was all over, eighth-ranked Wichita had been knocked off by tenacious Tulsa.

That's the way it went Tuesday night as Wichita's Ernie Moore and Tulsa's Jim King sank key baskets time after time until the Hurricane sharpshooter hit the target twice in succession and dropped Wichita 85-83 in double overtime.

Moore connected for two foul shots with 2 seconds left in regulation time for a 67-67 tie, the first time Wichita had pulled even since the opening seconds. Tulsa built a four-point lead with 50 seconds left in the first overtime before Dave Stallworth and Moore evened it again.

In overtime No. 2, King connected on two layups that gave Tulsa a lead it never relinquished. King finished with 18 points while Moore had 15. The high scorers were Bill Kusleika of Tulsa with 27 and Stallworth with 25.

It was Wichita's second loss in the Missouri Valley Conference, where everyone winds up chasing Cincinnati, and two losses just about tosses out your title chances.

Drake's Missouri Valley entry moved over to Ames, Iowa, for the completion of its annual two-game series with Iowa State, and lost 69-65, keeping intact a 17-year streak in which neither team has been able to win both contests in one season.

In Southern Conference action, Bob Harris and Roger Bergey led William & Mary to an 80-71 triumph over VMI, and a three-point play by Kenny Legins put George Washington ahead to stay in an 81-71 decision over Richmond.

3 Arkansans on Scholastic Team

NEW YORK (AP) —Three Arkansas prep football players were among 35 youths named Tuesday to the 12th annual All-American High School gridiron team of the Scholastic Magazine.

The national education publication's team includes players from 39 states and the District of Columbia. Southern states had 29 players on the 1962 squad.

Arkansas youths named to the team were Paul Becton of Little Rock High, Tommy Sain of Jonesboro high school and Gerald Russell of Little Rock Horace Mann.

Becton twice was an all-Big Nine Conference end. Sain, playing tackle, made the Class AA All-State team as his squad went 10-0 for the season and Russell averaged 15 yards a carry for the Bearcats in the Negro Big Nine Conference last year.

Lonoke Favors Bonds for Plant

LONOKE, Ark. (AP) —A $385,000 bond issue opening the way to this city's first major industry was approved Tuesday by a 1,296 to 24 vote margin.

A $325,000 issue to build a plant for the Ottenheimer Brothers Manufacturing Co., a garment firm, was passed under Act 9 of 1960. A $60,000 issue for improvements in the plant area was passed under Amendment 49.

The bond issue would be retired through rental payments of the firm. About 80 to 100 women would be immediately employed in the 50,000 square foot building. Total employment would eventually reach 300.

Four Year Term

LITTLE ROCK (AP) —Rep. Lonnie Ethridge of Jackson County said Saturday he would submit a proposed constitutional amendment to the 1963 Legislature which would give the governor a four-year term. He said his bill would stipulate that a governor could not succeed himself.

Violations Charged to Olympics

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) —Both the president and secretary of the United States Olympic Committee were charged today with violating the rules of the International Olympic Committee by siding with the NCAA in its bitter feud with the AAU.

Col. Don Hull, executive director of the AAU, said both Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson, U.S. Olympic Committee president and Asa Bushnell, the organization's secretary, had ignored Rule 24 of the IOC rules.

"This rule," said Hull, "instructs national Olympic committees to cooperate with national bodies affiliated with the international body. It also says that national committees must not recognize more than one organization and that must be the one recognized by the IOC."

The AAU is the affiliated governing body in the United States for track and field—the center of the controversy.

With the backing of the NCAA, a United States Track and Field Federation has been formed. It seeks co-sanctioning power with the AAU. Last November a peace meeting between the AAU and NCAA was held here and a coalition was formed. But it since has exploded amid charges and counter-charges.

Now, under instructions from President Kennedy, arbitration of the dispute is scheduled to start Friday under the direction of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

"At the November meeting," said Hull, "Wilson said that the Federation must be recognized. He also said the same thing at a meeting with the State Department. He has compromised the trust given him."

"In the case of Bushnell, he wrote a letter to the International Amateur Athletic Federation, espousing the cause of the U. S. Track and Field Federation. The letter was turned over to us and when it was circulated to the Olympic Board, Bushnell offered to resign."

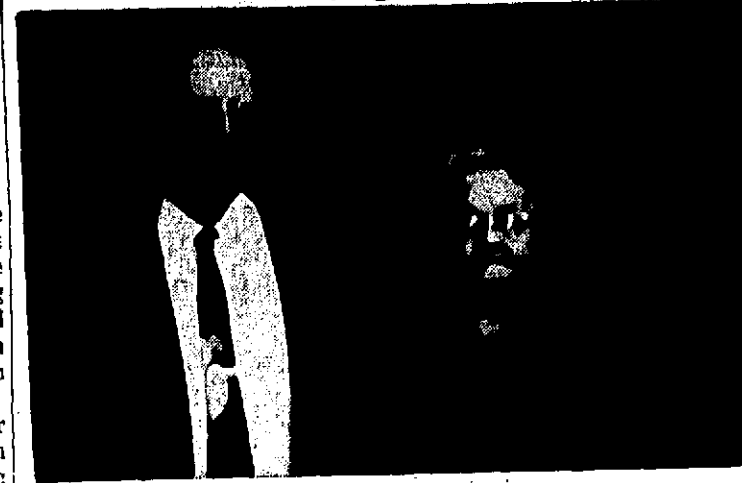

Wilson is the former commissioner of the Big Ten, and Bushnell currently is commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

Wilson said he wanted to hear the accusations from Hull.

Bushnell, vacationing at Tucson, Ariz., said:

"At this particular juncture, I can offer nothing but an expression of hope that arbitration will be speedily successful. I think there's a real chance to get a satisfactory settlement this time."

Tech Downs Hendrix, Ends Streak

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas Tech downed Hendrix 78-64 in Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball Tuesday night, breaking a 5-game losing streak.

In other AIC games Arkansas A&M handed Southern State its eighth straight loss, Arkansas College notched its seventh consecutive victory by defeating Henderson 72-46 and State Teachers toppled Harding 73-63.

Tech, now 4-4 in conference play, was paced, as usual, by Kenny Saylor. He and Chester Barker hit 13 points each in leading the Wonder Boys back into the winning column. Tom Tyler paced the Warriors with 13.

Arkansas A&M had little trouble with Southern State, building up an early lead and holding a 33-24 advantage at intermission.

Kenny Jones led A&M with 20 points and Solon Mohley contributed 18. Bill Askew and Jerry Meyers scored 11 points each to lead Southern State. State has not yet won an AIC game this season.

Lavaughn Robertson racked up 15 points in the first half and 16 in the second to boost Arkansas College to its triumphing of Henderson. But David Seward topped the team in scoring, with 26. Joe Burton led Henderson with 12, Ken Lewis had 11 and Sam Barker, 10.

Harding presented a troublesome zone defense and nearly caught Teachers in a second half rally, but the Bears hit eight free throws in the last six minutes to get clear.

Vernon Rogers was game high scorer, dumping in 23 points for Harding. Tom Davis led Teachers with 17 and Mickey McFartridge hit 13.

Two Towns Pass Bond Measures

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Voters in Harrisburg and Weiner gave overwhelming approval in special elections Tuesday to bond issues that will help bring natural gas to the Poinsett County towns.

The vote in Harrisburg was 445 to 1 in favor of $525,000 bond issue to finance construction of gas transmission lines from Grubbs and to build a natural gas transmission system inside the city limits.

Weiner voters approved a $135,000 bond issue 211 to 4 to finance construction of a transmission system.

The bonds will be paid off with revenue from the systems, which will be municipally owned. No property tax was needed.

Pro Basketball Classic to Be Played Tonight

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Professional basketball presents its showcase of jewels tonight in the annual East-West All-Star Classic but one of the coaches, Fred Schaus of the West, was confronted with a problem.

The Los Angeles Lakers' pilot planned to start what he said most all cage observers believe would be perhaps the finest five in the history of the National Basketball Association attraction.

Schaus named as his starting team Walt Bellamy of Chicago and Bob Pettit of St. Louis as forwards, Wilt Chamberlain of San Francisco at center and Elgin Baylor and Jerry West of Los Angeles as guards.

It developed that Schaus' ideas met universal applause from all sides except the men who run the Eastern Division.

They contended Bellamy was named by the selectors as a center, behind Wilt (The Stilt); that Baylor is a forward and should start there, and San Francisco's Guy Rodgers should open hostilities at his nominal position, a guard.

Schaus contends that once a squad is selected, he should be permitted to position his players as he pleases. He also thought the fans would appreciate seeing Baylor playing the backcourt against his opposite number, Oscar Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals.

It could be also that Schaus feels that Baylor, who is still hampered by a trick knee, might be more valuable at guard than at forward.

The board of directors of the league were scheduled to make a ruling on the controversy sometime today.

The coach of the East, Red Auerbach, meanwhile, decided or his starters—forward Jack Twyman of Cincinnati and Tom Heinsohn of Boston, center Bill Russell of Boston and guards Bob Cousy of Boston and Robertson.

Game time is 8:35 p.m. (PST), 11:35 p.m. (EST).

1963 RAMBLER WINS "CAR OF THE YEAR" AWARD

from Motor Trend Magazine

Each year the automobile industry eagerly awaits the selection of one car as "Car of the Year" by Motor Trend's impartial experts. For 1963, this most-wanted, hardest-to-get honor goes to Rambler...for outstanding design achievement and engineering leadership. Read why Rambler won this prized award over all other cars.

Here are some of the experts' reasons:

"New styling is based on lean, clean lines that are apparent from almost any angle."

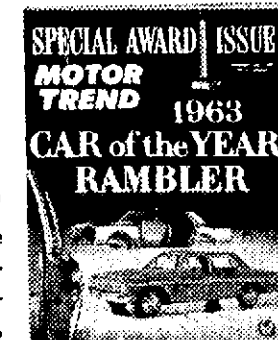

"Motor Trend's Cars of the Year prove their mettle in actual testing, confirm their engineering excellence, reliability, sturdiness and performance."

"Quality has always been one of American Motors' largest selling points."

"In unitized bodies, which American Motors pioneered, this latest design represents a real advancement...biggest single reason we chose Rambler Car of the Year."

"This new construction method results in a unit so strong it'll take punishment longer and naturally hold its resale value."

"The interiors of both the Classic and Ambassador are roomy and comfortable...offer plenty of legroom."

"A good safety device. Self-adjusting brakes and dual master cylinders...if one system fails, the other brings the car to a safe stop."

"Trunk is large. Low loading lip makes it simple to load."

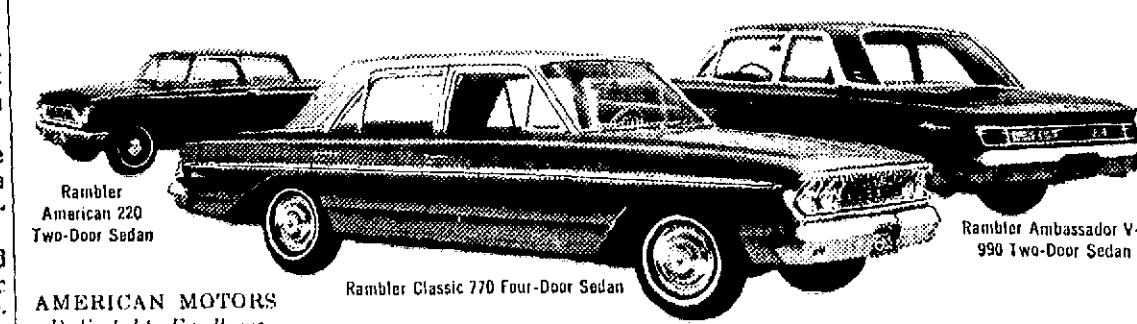

"Our Classic...with the rugged, ohv-in-line Six...gave a high of 26.7 mpg highway cruising...mixed city and freeway gave 23.4."

"A sportier, more performance-oriented vehicle, the Ambassador V-8 should satisfy the wants of the Rambler buyer who favors performance."

"There isn't any pitch or choppiness noticeable even on rough roads."

"Summing up...it looks like the new Rambler will be an even better buy than it has been in previous years."

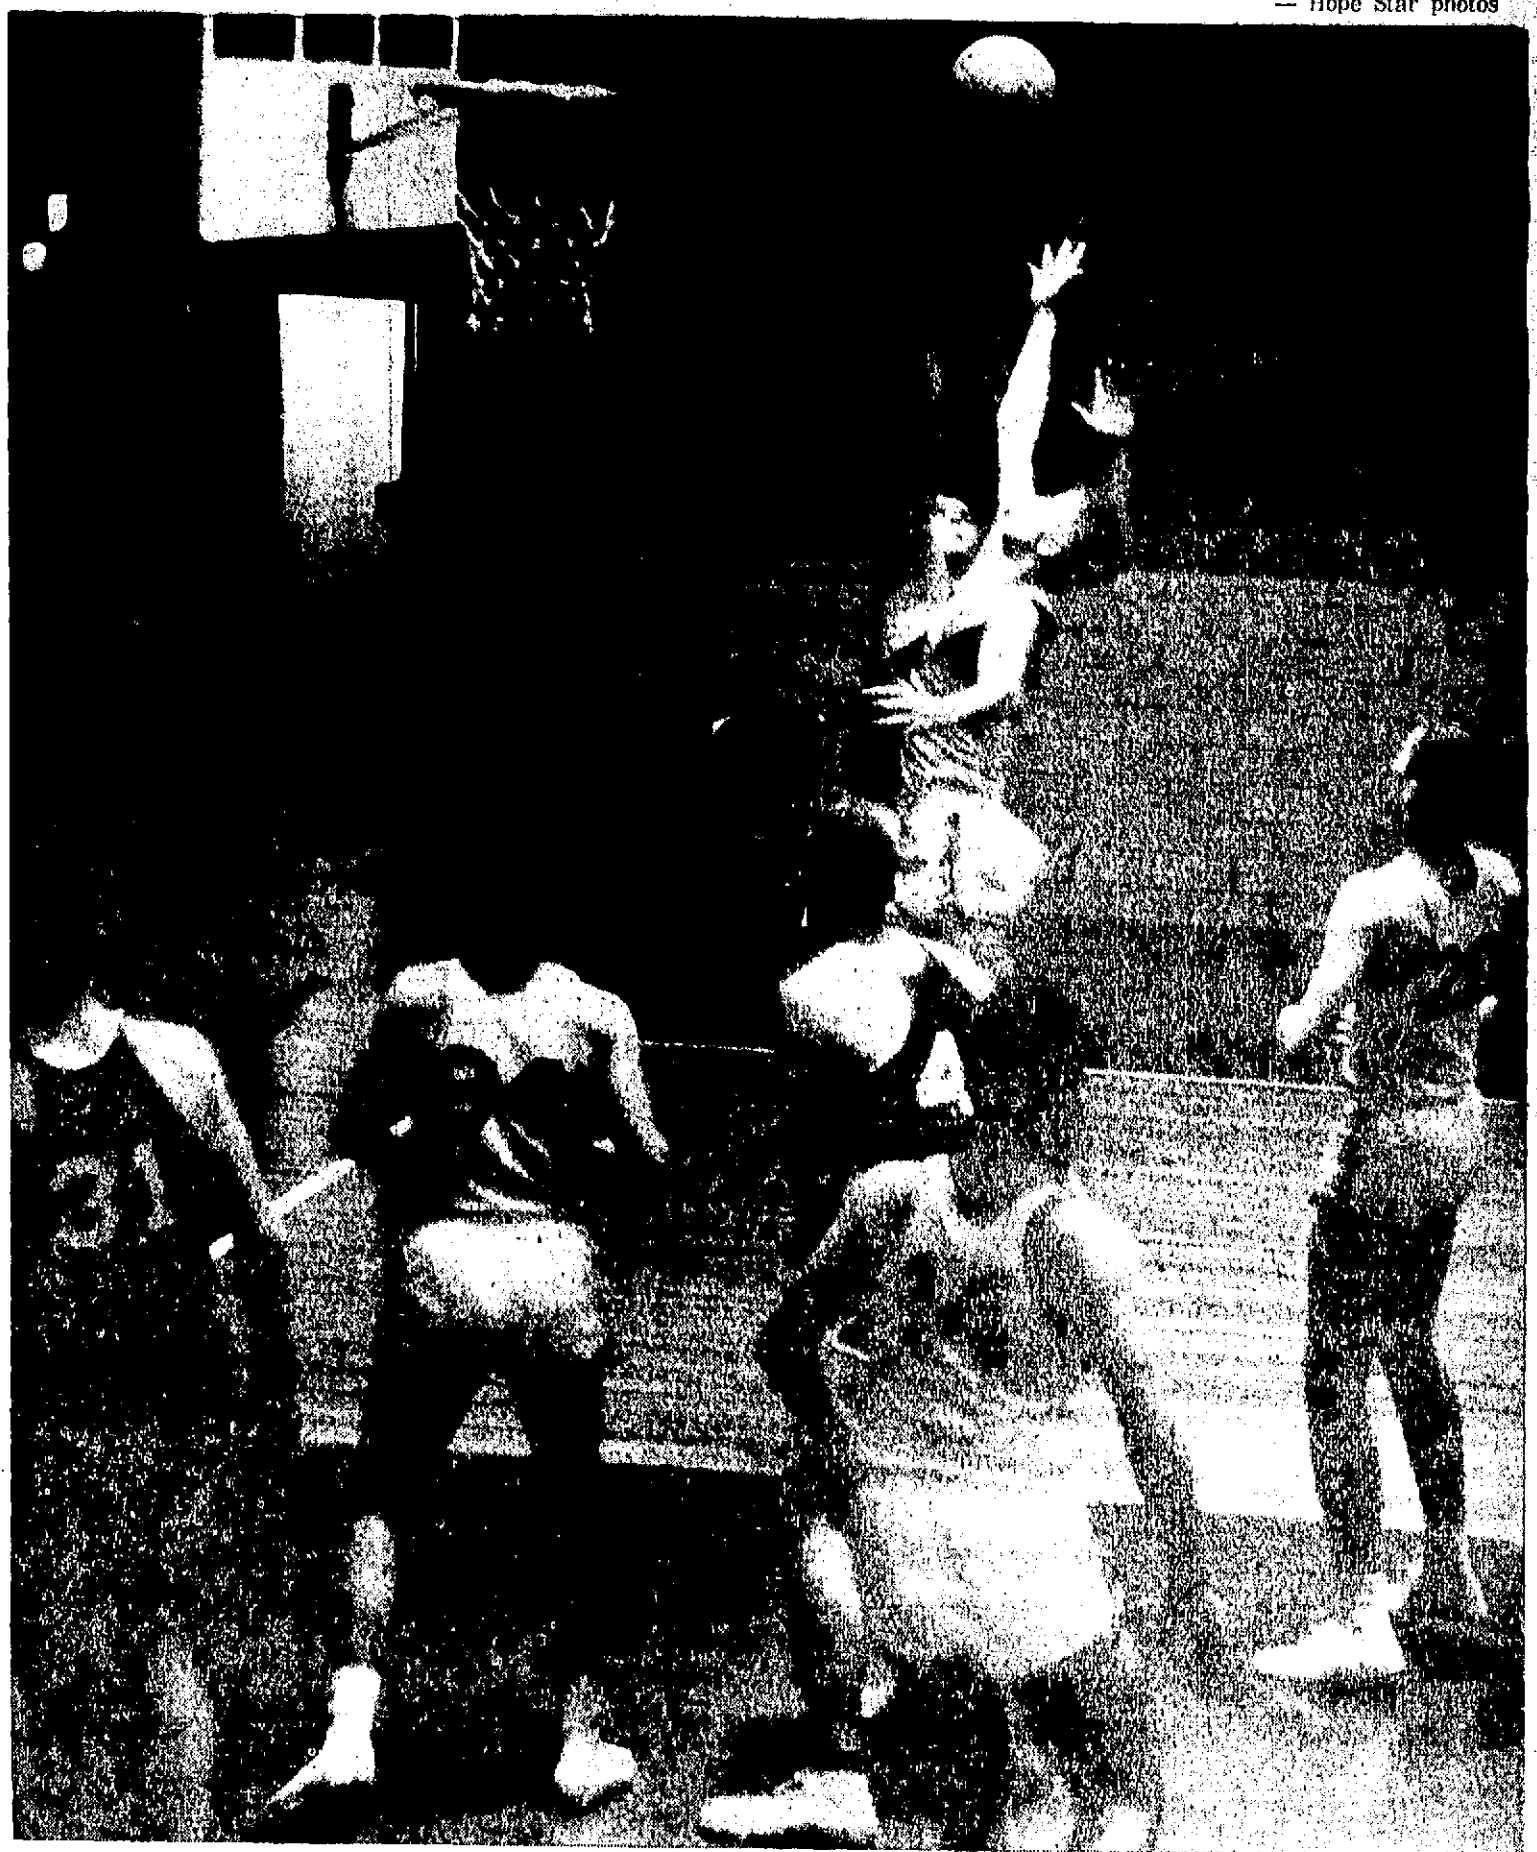

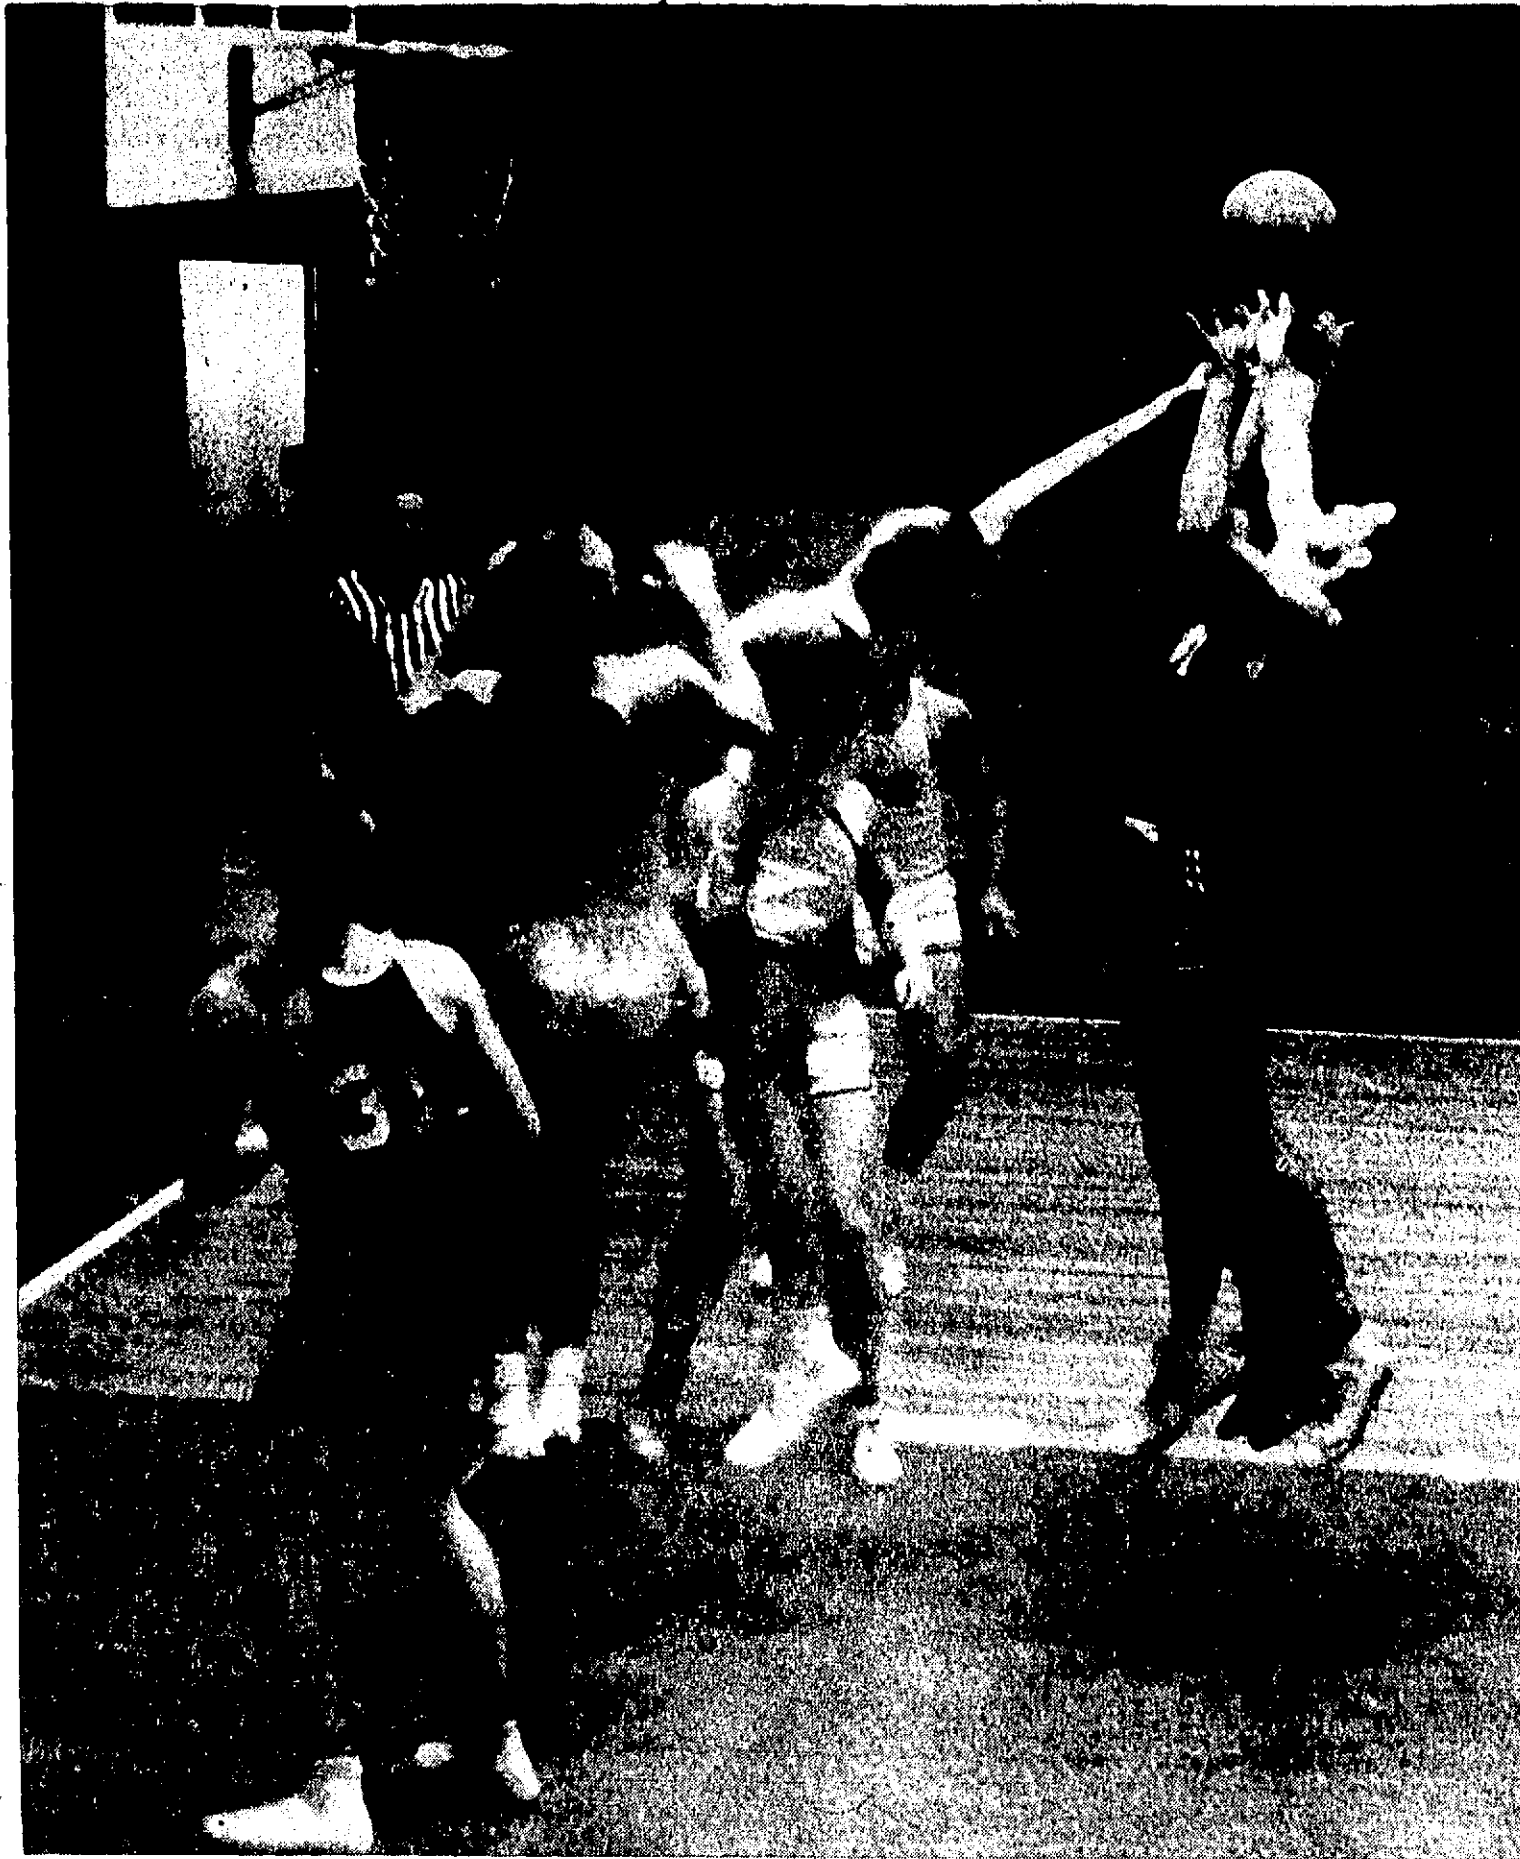

Why don't you look at the 1963 Rambler? Best-selling Rambler ever built!

Hope Cagers Take Pair Home Games Against Prescott

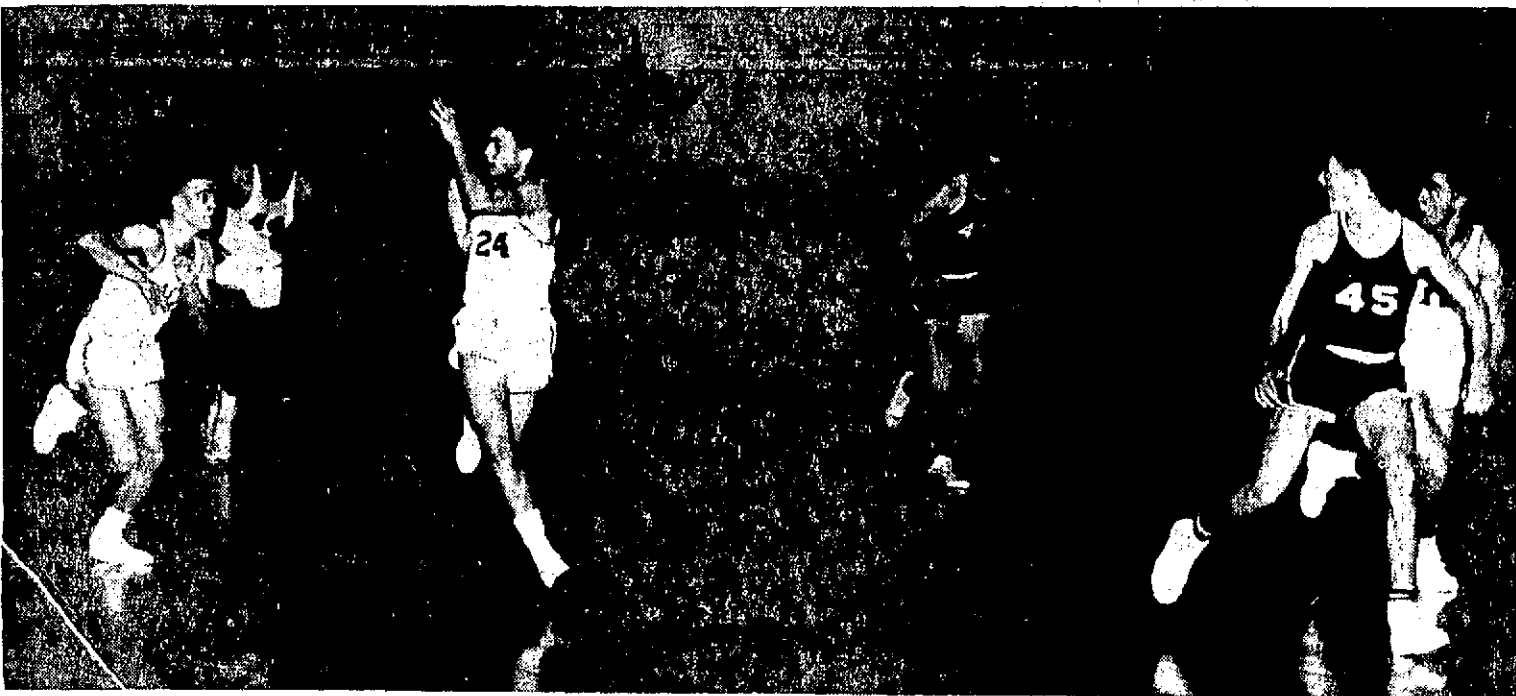

— Hope Star photos

HOPE SENIOR BOYS DEFEATED PRESCOTT 56-35, AND the Juniors won from the Nevada countians 33-27, at the local Jones Field House Tuesday night.

Foster (20) is reaching for the ball gotten by an unidentified Prescott player. Hope 30 is Mike Allen and Hope 14 (beyond Foster) is Tony Purfle. Prescott 31 is Tedito. Hope wears white, and Prescott dark jerseys.

Tri-X film without flash. They suffer from "grain" because the editor over-exposed on these first shots of the basketball season. Correct exposure for camera fans in Jones Field House with Tri-X film and hard development would be F 2.8 at 1-500th second without flash. Editor's exposure at F 1.5 was about two stops too much — Tri-X favoring a thin negative.

HERE'S A MID-FLOOR PLAY IN THE JUNIOR BOYS Game. Hope's Jack Watkins has the ball, the other Hope player using Bobby McGill.

Bobcats Take Two Games From Prescott

By CARTER HARDAGE
Tuesday Hope's Junior and Senior Boys took two games from Prescott teams, who didn't turn out to be quite as tough as expected. The Bobkittens went by Prescott 33-27, and the Cats romped the Curly Wolves 56-35.
In the first game the Kittens swatted a tall Prescott team 33-27. Taking an early First Quarter lead of 15-6, Hope lengthened the gap to 25-13 at the Half. Prescott gained slightly in the last Half, but Hope still commanded it 31-22 and fillay 33-27. So despite the absence of Ramsey, the much improved Juniors made their string of wins lengthen to four. With the most points registered by a single Bobkitten this season, Little Ronnie Ingram was high with a big 16 points. Watkins was next with 12. Then came May with 3 and Parris with 2.
In their 56-35 victory, Hope made their record stand now at 10-5, with a 2-1 Conference record. Hope reared ahead of a stunned pack of Wolves by 20-3 at the Quarter, and an even bigger 34-7 at the Half. Prescott came to life to make it 45-18 at the Quarter. Pleasant Plains, and came to life, but Hope took it 56-35. Earl Murphy dropped in 11 to be high scorer, followed by Dan Jones with 10. Following were: Burnett 3, Porterfield and Purfle 2 each, Foster and Allen 3 apiece, Mayfield 3, and Russell 2.

The Junior and Senior Boys travel to Magnolia for a conference game Saturday. Since they play in the Saratoga Tournament today, the Senior Girls canceled their Texarkana engagement Thursday. The Lady Cats meet Deight at 5:30, and at 6:45 the "B" Boys play Fouke's Seniors. In the Emmet Tournament tonight, The Junior Girls and Boys both play Prescott.

Hornsby Is Enshrined in Hall of Fame

SEATTLE (AP)—The name of Rogers Hornsby is enshrined forever in baseball's Hall of Fame and in the heart of David Koshier. Each has a plaque as a visual reminder of the Rajah.
Few men penetrated the hard outer core of Rogers Hornsby to become a friend.
One was Koshier, a cerebral palsy victim who did not walk until he reached the age of 16. Sports writers, encouraging Koshier's interest in athletics, introduced him to the Raj when Hornsby managed the Pacific Coast League Seattle Rainiers in 1951.
The frusque Hornsby took Koshier with him to the team's spring training camp as a clubhouse assistant. When the Raj moved on the following year to manage the St. Louis Cardinals he again took Koshier along.

Later the Chicago Cubs, on Hornsby's recommendation, hired Koshier as a scout. One player he signed for the Cubs was Ron Santo, the team's prized third baseman.
San Francisco's Giants hired scout Koshier away from the Cubs. Last year the Giants cut their scouting force and Koshier was among those lopped from the payroll.
The recent death of Hornsby, added to the disappointment of a job lost, left the usually jovial Koshier grief stricken and almost inconsolable.
A bulky package came in the mail to Koshier a week after he died. The package contained the personal plaque Hornsby was given when he was elected to the Hall of Fame.
"My husband wanted you to be a

Bennett Names Assistants

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Bruce Bennett, who was sworn in as attorney general today, said seven of his eight assistants have been named.
Four served under Atty. Gen. Frank Holt. They are Jack Holt Jr., whom Bennett said would serve temporarily; Jack Lessenberry, Russell Wools and Jerry Patterson.
Bennett said Les Evills, a Benton attorney, will be his chief assistant. Other new members of the staff will be Richard Adkisson of Little Rock and Perry Kinord of El Dorado.

UN Buildup in Katanga Continues

By DENNIS NEED

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, The Congo (AP)—Wary U.N. officials continued their military buildup in Katanga today as they awaited Moise Tshombe's next move following his announced readiness to end his 2 1/2-year secession.

Military authorities on the scene treated the surrender offer with extreme caution even though the Congolese central government agreed to Tshombe's demand for a full amnesty. It was his lone remaining condition for returning to the Congo fold.

Indian troops advancing on Kolwezi were reported under Katanga mortar fire Tuesday night. The Indians suffered one wounded in a sharp fight earlier in the day. They were reported 72 miles from the Tshombe stronghold and its vital mines and utilities which the secessionists once threatened to blow up.

While U.N. troops in the field kept on the alert, signs multiplied elsewhere that Tshombe's long fight for Katanga independence was at an end.

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant, often skeptical in the past about Tshombe's pronouncements, welcomed the Katanga leader's new promise to cooperate with the United Nations. Thant said in New York he hoped Tshombe's readiness to allow U.N. troops freedom of movement would be put into effect promptly.

Nine of Tshombe's white officers, obviously not trusting in any amnesty promises from the Leopoldville government, cleared out of Kolwezi and crossed the border into Northern Rhodesia. Tshombe already has paid off the white officers.

A U.N. spokesman in New York announced that Congolese Premier Cyrille Adoula and President Joseph Kasavubu had sent letters to Thant assuring him that they stood by previous affirmations of amnesty.

Under Thant's plan for Congo unification, the central government is required to "immediately enact and, if necessary introduce and defend in Parliament, legislation proclaiming a general amnesty." The Congo Parliament now is in recess after almost voting Adoula out of office.

Tshombe told newsmen in Kolwezi that he, members of his government and all who had served him must be given the amnesty provided for in Thant's plan.

Adoula's Cabinet surveyed the situation at a meeting in Leopoldville Tuesday. Some ministers want to bar Tshombe from any position of leadership in a unified Congo. But Adoula favors keeping a place for him in Katanga, where he is popular despite his military evasions.

Only Routine Business by Legislature

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Legislature disposed of organizational routine Monday and prepared for business after today's inaugural address by Gov. Orval Faubus.

Faubus was scheduled to speak to a joint session of the House and Senate at 11 a.m.

The governor gave no advance notice of his program. He was not expected to propose any startling projects.

Rep. Marion Crank of Little River County was elected speaker of the House Monday and Sen. Max Howell got the nod as president pro tempore of the Senate. These elections were assured in advance by pledges collected during and since the 1961 session.

The speaker is the presiding officer in the House. The president pro tempore presides over the Senate in the absence of the lieutenant governor.

The House named Hal Moody of Little Rock to a fourth term as its chief clerk. Lee Reeves of Warren was appointed secretary of the Senate for a second time.

Only one bill was formally introduced in each House Monday. Senate Bill 1 provides $168,650 for expenses of the Senate during the 60-day session and House Bill 1 allocates $369,600 for House expenses.

The Senate's appropriation is $10,130 higher and the House figure $30,000 higher than two years ago. Most of the additional money in the House bill will go for 100 new swivel chairs for the members.

Chief Justice Carleton Harris of the Arkansas Supreme Court swore in the House Monday and cans and conservative Democrats is being reworded to oppose Kennedy domestic proposals such as those for establishment of a youth conservation corps, a domestic peace corps and large-scale aid to education.

The President's program for Social Security-financed health care for the elderly falls into a somewhat different category. It would put an added tax take on individuals at a time when Kennedy is asking that their income taxes be lowered.

Lonoke to Vote on Plant Bonds

LONOKE, Ark. (AP) — Lonoke residents will decide at the polls today whether to finance construction of a garment factory for Ottenheimer Brothers Manufacturing

THE OLD WAY—Lumberjacks of more than 60 years ago used five yokes of powerful oxen to pull a big Douglas Fir log down greased skids near the Columbia River in the state of Washington. It's easier now.

Co., which could become Lonoke's first major industry.

A $325,000 bond issue will be on the ballot along with a $60,000 issue, which would be used to finance improvements in the plant area. The larger issue is scheduled under Act 9 of 1960, the smaller under Amendment 49.

There would be no tax levy. Ottenheimer would rent the building and the city would use the payments to pay for the building.

The 50,000 square foot plant would employ 80 to 100 women immediately in pilot operations and eventually would employ 300.

Justice Frank Holt administered the oath to senators.

A pre-session check of key legislators indicated the lawmakers anticipate a relatively calm session.

Truck weight increases, withholding of the state income tax and city - county financing are some issues which might spark controversy.

Cites Loss of Research Money

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The president of the University of Arkansas said here Monday night that the school will lose more than 90 per cent of the federal research funds it should get this year because it has not developed its research potential.

Dr. David W. Mullins told the Sales and Marketing Executives Club that lack of space has handicapped the research program.

A new $2 million science building, for which a contract was let last week, will provide adequate facilities, however, Mullins said.

He also called on Arkansas businessmen to offer higher starting salaries to graduates in order to keep them in Arkansas. Mullins said development of the research facilities and expansion of the graduate program would help keep Arkansas-trained students in their home state.

ANNOUNCING . . .

The Formation Of The Partnership Of Greening-Ellis Company

INSURANCE - LOANS - REAL ESTATE

209 SOUTH MAIN STREET, HOPE, ARKANSAS

LEONARD F. ELLIS

FRED O. ELLIS

W. E. (Gene) WHITE

So, The People May Know . . .

This is a merger of the Leonard Ellis Insurance & Realty Company with the Greening Insurance & Realty Company, with principal offices at 209 South Main Street, Hope, Arkansas.

The new firm, Greening-Ellis Company will be headed by Fred O. Ellis, President; Leonard F. Ellis, Vice-President; and William E. (Gene) White, Secretary-Treasurer.

Consolidation of the two firms will bring a total of 54 years of experience in the general insurance and real estate business to customers in Southwest Arkansas. The Greening Agency was originally established in 1926 by the late E. S. Greening; and the Leonard Ellis Agency was established in April, 1946.

Fred O. Ellis, heading the new firm of Greening-Ellis Company, came to Hope in 1947 and entered the insurance business with the late Mr. Greening, later purchasing all financial interests of the firm. He is a graduate of Little Rock High School and attended Little Rock College. He is a World War II veteran and flew "the hump" as a C-46 pilot.

Leonard F. Ellis, vice-president, had a career in newspaper work prior to entering the insurance and realty business in 1946. Also a World War II veteran, he served in the Air Force as a public relations specialist and prepared part of the uplifting messages radio-beamed from England to the French underground at the time of Normandy.

His agency was started from "scratch", and with a rising economy, has recorded 16 consecutive years of gains. Leonard is a graduate of Hope High School and later attended the University of Arkansas.

Gene White, native of Hope and grandson of the founder of the Greening Agency, first entered the insurance business in 1957, joining the local firm at that time. He is a graduate of the University of Arkansas, majoring in business administration.

He is the son of Mrs. W. E. White of Hope and the late Gene White, who headed White & Company in the mercantile business here a number of years.

Consolidation of the two firms will give the new company a total of 30 of the top-rated stock and mutual companies, providing facilities for any and all types of insurance protection. No business will be switched from one company to another, but will remain in the same companies in which it now exists.

Major contributing factors leading to the consolidation and the forming of the new company and the three-way partnership, was the realization of the many hazards of "one-man agencies" which exist today — the sole owner, the sole proprietorship.

The new partnership brings unity, strength, experience, better service, wider facilities, and most important permanent and perpetual protection, night and day, for our policyholders — who are the most important assets we have — and also assuring companies we represent a continual growth in business.

Actually, it's great to be in the insurance business, and we look forward with much enthusiasm and anticipation to serving the public to the very best of our abilities.

And in conclusion, all three of us, the new partnership, desire to express our heart-felt thanks and gratitude to all our friends and policyholders who have been so nice to us down through the years.

SELLING REAL ESTATE IS ANOTHER SERVICE

No other business touches as many human beings, nor involves as much money, as the sale, purchase, and exchange of real estate. Three-fourths of the nation's wealth is in land and improvements.

Fred and Leonard Ellis are each bonded real estate brokers with years of experience. We will continue to engage in the general real estate business.

If you plan to buy, build or sell property, we will appreciate the opportunity of consulting with you. In this interesting and fascinating profession, our aim is to always adhere to the highest ethics — to be honest, fair, impartial, satisfying — both to buyer and seller.

We are well prepared in the field of financing, and will handle conventional FHA and GI loans. As we look forward to the continual growth of Hope and the home building industry, it is our sincere desire to be a vital part of it.
